

2011–12 CONCERT SEASON SCHEDULE

Heartland Sings: 9/11 Commemoration

September 11, 2011 • 4:00PM • Auer Performance Hall, IPFW Rhinehart Music Center

Featuring Heartland with the Heartland Festival Chorus & Orchestra. Program scheduled to include dramatic presentations, imagery, and music, including a special arrangement of the Star Spangled Banner, Copland's Fanfare for the Common Man, the Agnus Dei by Samuel Barber, and Requiem by John Rutter.

Heartland Sings: Opera Let's Make a Scene

November 6, 2011 • 4:00PM • Plymouth Congregational Church UCC

Featuring members of Heartland in vignettes from favorite operas singing both solo and ensemble numbers.

Heartland Sings: A Winter's Solstice

December 11, 2011 • 4:00PM • First Wayne Street United Methodist Church

December 18, 2011 • 4:00PM • Grace Episcopal Church

Music celebrating the winter holiday season, a timeless tradition that is observed around the world in myriad ways.

Heartland Sings: Family Concerts

February 18 & 19, 2012 • 4:00PM • University of Saint Francis North Campus Auditorium

A program designed for the young and young at heart. A great day to introduce children to the joys of choral music.

Heartland Sings: American Composers

March 24, 2012 • 8:00PM • Fort Wayne Museum of Art

March 25, 2012 • 4:00PM • Saint Peter's Catholic Church

A Lynne Salomon American Music Concert featuring choral masterworks by American composers old and new.

Heartland Sings: Yom HaShoah

April 17, 2012 • 7:00PM • Temple Achduth Vesholom

A free Community Concert sponsored by the Fort Wayne Jewish Federation, Yom HaShoah is the annual service in remembrance of the Holocaust.

Heartland Sings: Ein Deutsches Requiem

June 2, 2012 • 8:00PM • Auer Performance Hall, IPFW Rhinehart Music Center

A special Germanfest concert performance of Johannes Brahms' Ein Deutsches Requiem (sung in German) and featuring Heartland with the Heartland Festival Chorus & Orchestra. Special guest soloists to include Denise Ritter (soprano) & Ryan DeRyke (baritone).